

EDUCATIONAL INTERNSHIP AGREEMENT

This is an agreement between Wei-Yea-Li ("Intern"), Graduate Institute of College of Medicine, Kaohsiung Medical University, Taiwan ("Affiliation of Intern"), and the Law Lab, Princeton University, USA ("Institute"). The purpose of this educational internship is for Intern to learn about Institute's biochemistry knowledge and to gain valuable insight and experience. The term of this internship begins on 06/01/2016 and ends 09/31/2016.

Conditions of the Agreement:

- The internship is related to an educational purpose and there is no guarantee or expectation that the activity will result in employment with the Institute.
- The education received by the Intern from the internship is for the expressed benefit of the Intern.
- The Intern does not replace or displace any employee of the Institute.
- The Intern will receive direct and close supervision by an appropriate supervisor.
- The Institute does not derive an immediate advantage from the activities performed by the Intern.
- Institute is not liable for injury sustained or health conditions that may arise for the unpaid intern during the course of the internship.

The Intern specifically agrees to and acknowledges the following:

- This internship is educational in nature and there is no guarantee or expectation that the internship will result in employment.
- The Intern will maintain a regular internship schedule determined by the Intern and their supervisor.
- The Intern will demonstrate honesty, punctuality, courtesy, cooperative attitude, and grooming habits, appropriate dress and a willingness to learn.
- The Intern will obey the policies, rules and regulations of the Institute site and comply with the Institute's biochemistry practices and procedures.
- The Intern will furnish his/her supervisor with all necessary information pertaining to the unpaid internship, including related assignments and reports.
- Under no circumstances will the Intern leave the internship without first conferring with the Intern's supervisor.
- Transportation to and from the internship site is the responsibility of the Intern.

I understand that this unpaid, learning experience is not employment and that Intern is not entitled to wages or a promise of employment at the completion of the unpaid structured learning experience.
